

Hint for Problem 36

The first thing you need to decide is “What are the two sets whose elements we are counting?” Then it will be easier to think of a bijection between these two sets. It turns out that these two sets are sets of sets!