

Restaurants in Hanover

There are several restaurants in downtown Hanover, all within walking distance (between 5-15 minutes) to Kemeny Hall. Here are some choices, organized mostly by proximity to Kemeny Hall. Some personal comments are included.

Restaurants on Main St:

- Pine Restaurant: Located in the Hanover Inn. Very expensive for dinner, but some reasonable options for lunch. Fancy bar drinks. Has outdoor seating.
- Tuk Tuk: Thai. I highly recommend it. If you ask for spicy, you will get spicy.
- Lou's: (breakfast and lunch) Open early. This is a time-honored Hanover tradition. Really good breakfasts and bakery items. Has outdoor seating.
- The Works: Relatively new. Very affordable. Lots of choices for sandwiches and salads. The bread is very good.
- Still North: This is on Allen St, but just off of Main. It's a bookstore cafe with nice sandwiches.
- Sawtooth Kitchen: Also on Allen St. Popular with graduate students. If you like fried chicken, wings, or BBQ this is the place for you. If you don't, maybe not so much.
- The Nest: Kind of a fancy sandwich place. Has outdoor seating.
- Mollys: A lot of people really like this restaurant. Has outdoor seating.
- Boloco: A build your own burrito place. Has outdoor seating.
- Starbucks: Well air-conditioned. Has wifi.
- Sushiya: Mostly Korean and sushi. I love this place. They just re-opened their dining room (it was only take out for the last four years).

Restaurants on Lebanon St:

- Base Camp: Nepalese. It might not be open on Mondays.
- Han Fusion: Chinese.
- Jewel of India: Has outdoor seating.
- Duende: Tapas. I have actually never been there, but I have heard good things.

Restaurants on South St:

- Umpleby's Bakery Cafe: (breakfast and lunch) Mostly sandwiches for lunch. Has outdoor shaded seating.
- Ramunto's: Brick oven pizza. Has outdoor seating and good beer on tap.
